

JOE BIDEN: EMPOWERING WORKERS,¹ COMBATING CORPORATE GREED

Joe Biden will:

- Ensure that workers are treated with dignity and receive the pay, benefits, and workplace protections they deserve
- Support the PRO Act, which encourages workers to organize
- Hold corporate executives accountable for labor law violations
- Reward corporations that keep jobs at home and penalize those that ship jobs overseas²
- Crack down on mergers that have contributed to concentration in many markets
- Protect and expand the Affordable Care Act
- Penalize companies that bargain in bad faith
 - Give the NLRB the power to force employers bargaining in bad faith back to the negotiating table
 - End surface bargaining, a tactic corporations use when they have no intent of reaching an agreement

BUILDING OUT AMERICA'S BROADBAND INFRASTRUCTURE³

"Today, 14 million Americans have no access to broadband and 25 million lack broadband with appropriate speeds and reliability. Vice President Biden is committed to bringing affordable broadband to all Americans with a $20 billion investment in infrastructure, particularly in rural areas, which could create over 250,000 jobs in our industry."

--IBEW International President Lonnie Stephenson

BIDEN IS COMMITTED TO NET NEUTRALITY

Joe Biden will reinstate net neutrality rules, which would ensure fair competition between internet service providers by:

- Prohibiting the blocking of legal internet content
- Banning the throttling of internet speeds
- Forbidding discriminatory actions by internet service providers against content carriers

DONALD TRUMP FAILING THE MIDDLE CLASS

BROADCASTING TELECOMMUNICATIONS

PRESIDENT TRUMP: PROMOTING CORPORATIONS, FAILING WORKERS

- Promotes the interests of corporate executives, shareholders over working people, and fails to protect workers' safety, wages and rights
- Stacked the NLRB with pro-management lawyers who have spent their careers attacking workers' rights¹
- Released guidance that would make CBA neutrality and labor peace agreements unlawful, allowing companies and corporations to be released from current neutrality contracts²
- 2017 tax cuts include a loophole that allows for exemptions to foreign profits, encouraging the offshoring of U.S. jobs³

AS PANDEMIC RAGES ON, LITTLE CORONAVIRUS RELIEF

- Trump opposes extending $600 weekly unemployment insurance benefits⁴
- OSHA refuses to order a temporary standard that would offer workers coronavirus protection⁵
- NLRB instructed that cases regarding COVID-19 related charges against employers be dismissed without approval from workers' unions⁶

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THAT TRUMP INFRASTRUCTURE PLAN?

- In 2016, the president promised a $1 trillion dollar infrastructure package
- Four years later, no robust federal infrastructure package, as much of rural America lacks broadband service and other areas remain underserved, and the country's infrastructure continues to fall into disrepair
